Nothing remains above grade at Melville's Warehouse, however, souvenir hunters have found pipe and bottle shards in the vicinity of the tavern which stood on the site in the 18th century.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

In 1774, petition was made to the General Assembly to make a new County from parts of Queen Anne's and Dorchester Counties. It was granted in that year and the commissioners were appointed for setting up the county government, they included:

Charles Dickenson Benson Stainton Thomas White William Haskins

Richard Mason Joshua Clark Nathaniel Potter

James Barwick kept inn at Melvill's Warehouse north of Denton where the first session was held on March 15, 1774. Frequently sessions met at Greensboro, especially in 1777-78-79.

In 1785, the General Assembly authorized purchase of two acres at Melvill's and subsequently Matthew Driver gave two acres to the county. However, in 1790 all was moved to Pig Point, later Denton. In 1797 the first courthouse was completed.
